Amazing Green Planet partners with 2trg to provide free electronic waste recycling

Amazing Green Planet, a green store in Louisville, Kentucky, is sponsoring an event with 2trg, an electronics recycler in Louisville, Kentucky, to accept unwanted household electronic waste (e-waste) from customers and the local community for free on Friday, October 21, 2011 from 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Acceptable items include cables, CD-ROM drives, cellular phones, circuit boards, computer speakers, CPUs, CRT monitors, docking stations, DVD players, fax machines, hard drives, keyboards, laptops, LCD monitors, mainframes, mice, modems, PDAs, personal copiers, printers, processor chips, scanners, servers, speakers, tape and disc drives, telephones, televisions, terminals, UPS battery back-ups, and VCR players. Appliances (microwaves, toasters, etc.), ballasts, batteries, and light bulbs will not be accepted.

A convenient drop-off station will be available to customers and the local community at Amazing Green Planet in Westport Village located at 1301 Herr Lane #117, Louisville, Kentucky 40222. The event celebrates Halfway to Earth Day, and participants can take advantage of a special sale at Amazing Green Planet.

About Amazing Green Planet...

Amazing Green Planet opened its doors in October, 2008. As the first "green store" in Louisville, we offer you an alternative to the typical retail experience. Amazing Green Planet features products made from sustainable materials, presents solutions for everyone to cut down on their carbon footprint and incorporates fair trade principles. Our goal is to save the earth's resources and to educate our community on how to preserve our wonderful planet. Although our store may be one small business among many, we strive to do our share to "Help Mother Nature Smile."
